7452 Appointment of clerks for rural training

Letter no B1-C.5779/45-46 dated the 30th May, 1946, from the Director of Food Supplies requesting approval for the action in authorising the Deputy Commissioners of districts to appoint additional clerks for each Taluka office and extra clerks for each of the Food Assistants in connection with the scheme of rural training up to the end of September 1946.

In his circular letter no B1-C.5779/45-46 dt 30.5.46, the D.F.S. has authorised the Deputy Commissioners of districts to appoint (i) a clerk on Rs 40/- for each Taluka office and (ii) a clerk on Rs 60/- for each of the Food Assistants in connection with the scheme of rural training, temporarily till the end of September 1946, the appointments being treated as promotion vacancies. He has solicited approval for the action taken by him as above. The proposal may perhaps be approved with financial concurrence.
